Detective 1st Class Barry M. Grimm
(Retired)

Detective Grimm served as a police officer in a large municipality in Monmouth County NJ for over 30 years prior to retiring in 2008. Most of that time was spent (25+ years) in the Major Crimes Unit as a Detective. Major Crimes provided Forensics as well as fire/arson IV and all death investigations.

In the late 80's Barry began instructing at NFA providing instruction both on and off campus in the Arson Curriculum concentrating on Interview Interrogation courtroom and Forensic Evidence (being chosen to teach the first offerings in the country) Barry continues to teach at NFA in the most current Fire Arson curriculum and in June 2022 will teach the new residential 6-day Courtroom/Report writing course and the monthly Fire Arson Course R772.

These courses partner with ATF and IAAI.

Barry is a past President of the NJ IAAI and served as President of the International from 2019 to 2020, now serving on the International T&E Committee, he has taught in forty plus states in the US.

Barry is a US Army veteran
